

Bluejay's Farewell to PCM

Part 1 - Mod Schenagagians

Introduction

Hello, I am Bluejay. I joined PCM Discord on August 30th, and I was on the server for about 5 months. I was a quadrant leader for the centrists, and I had made a ton of friends in my time on the server. It was always in my interest that PCM was a comfortable and happy server for everyone to use; I personally made great efforts to make sure that other people enjoyed the server as much as I did. The turn-over rate for a place like PCM was fairly high, and many people left frequently; I tried my best to make sure people came back to the server and I was successful in some attempts (i.e. MisterFireTango and Holiest Pope).

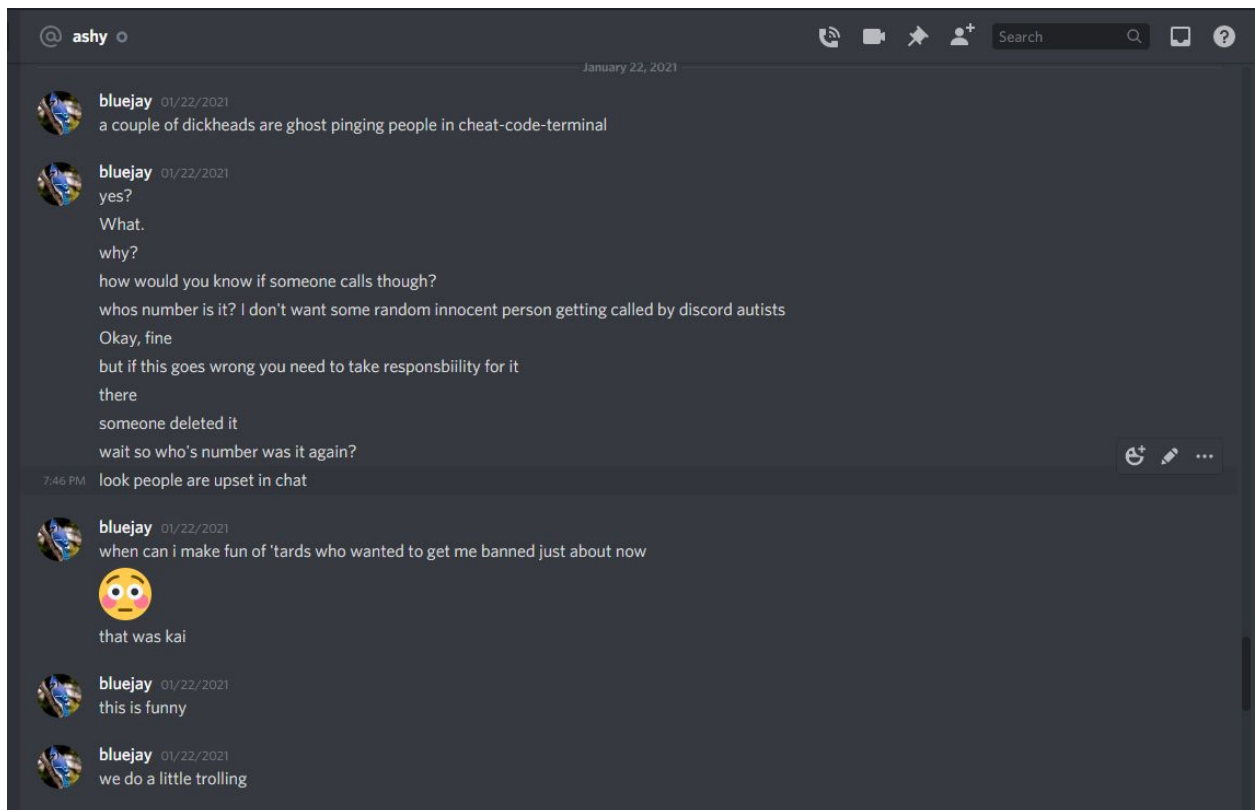

However, in my time in PCM, I was subject to systemic misinformation, targeted harassment (including sexual harassment) by mods and users, character assassination and frequent gaslighting attempts. I believe it is in the best interests of everyone (Except the malicious agents who intentionally tried to make my time in the server miserable) that I come forward and explain my side of the story.

Now you might be wondering; why should someone care about "Discord drama"? Well, for one, receiving all the shit that I had to put up with for 5 months did a number on my mental health. I will gladly admit that I am quite an introverted IRL and being an online community is an easier way to make friends; obviously this is empathized because of COVID, and I miss the communication I would have had in school or at work. PCM to me was an escape where I could come to relax and I tried to make it a place for other people to relax as well. To be quite honest, I have an incessant desire to be liked and respected among my peers, and this has led me to make poor judgements in the server (this will be relevant shortly). I will gladly admit that I have had many faults of my own in this server, but while the attention has been unfairly focused on me in my entire time in the community, no one has ever questioned if maybe some of the things I said were true.

I am writing this to both my friends who might look at me differently if they didn't know the full story, and I'm writing this to my detractors who I think misjudged me and hopefully can make a better, more informed judgement instead after listening to this.

The January Incident

It's going to be tough to cover 5 months worth of drama, so I'll start from the end; what actually caused me to leave the server. A couple days ago, a moderator named Ashy doxxed himself in the server apparently. He posted his phone number in the chat, and people were calling his house to tell his mom that he was a gay furry. This is my knowledge of events. The point is, however, Ashy asked me for help.

I don't know why, but Ashy deleted all of his DMs asking me for help. It doesn't matter, you can clearly see from my side of the conversation and fill in the blanks yourself. The important quote you should focus on is "if this goes wrong you need to take responsibility for it".

I agreed to help Ashy because I felt bad for him and also I enjoy helping people out. He asked me to post the non-emergency number of the Houston PD and say that it was Ashy's number. I posted the number he gave and said something like "I hate this faggot furry moderator, so I'm going to dox him just because" (something that honestly I thought came off as being obviously trolling, it was out of character for how I usually talk and act).

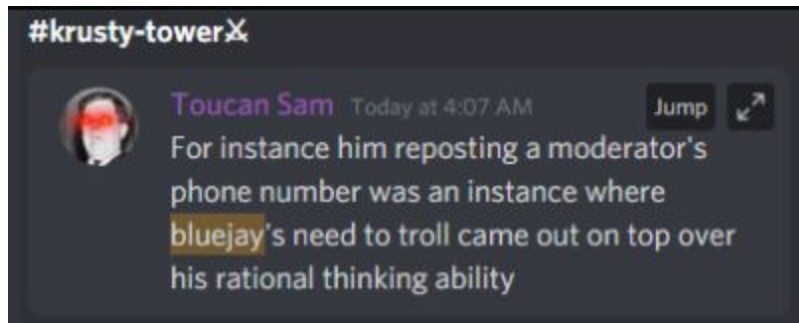

I tried to do something nice for a moderator to help him out of a bad situation, and I got in a LOT of disrespect for me on multiple servers. This is part of a running theme, btw; the people who hate me would latch onto anything, even if it's not true, and when I get vindicated it's just ignored. No one apologizes for anything or admits that they misjudged me.

I played along with the joke for a little while, saying some more stuff that were obviously jokes like "yeah I doxxed a moderator, what are you going to do about it?". After an hour or so of doing this, it was getting a bit overdone and I was getting a lot of hate to the point that it was starting to bother me. So I posted my DMs (before they were deleted by Ashy) in #middle-ground, and even streamed my DMs with Ashy in VC for about 10 or so people, including one user named Toucan Sam. The chat quickly calmed down after that, and I went to bed.

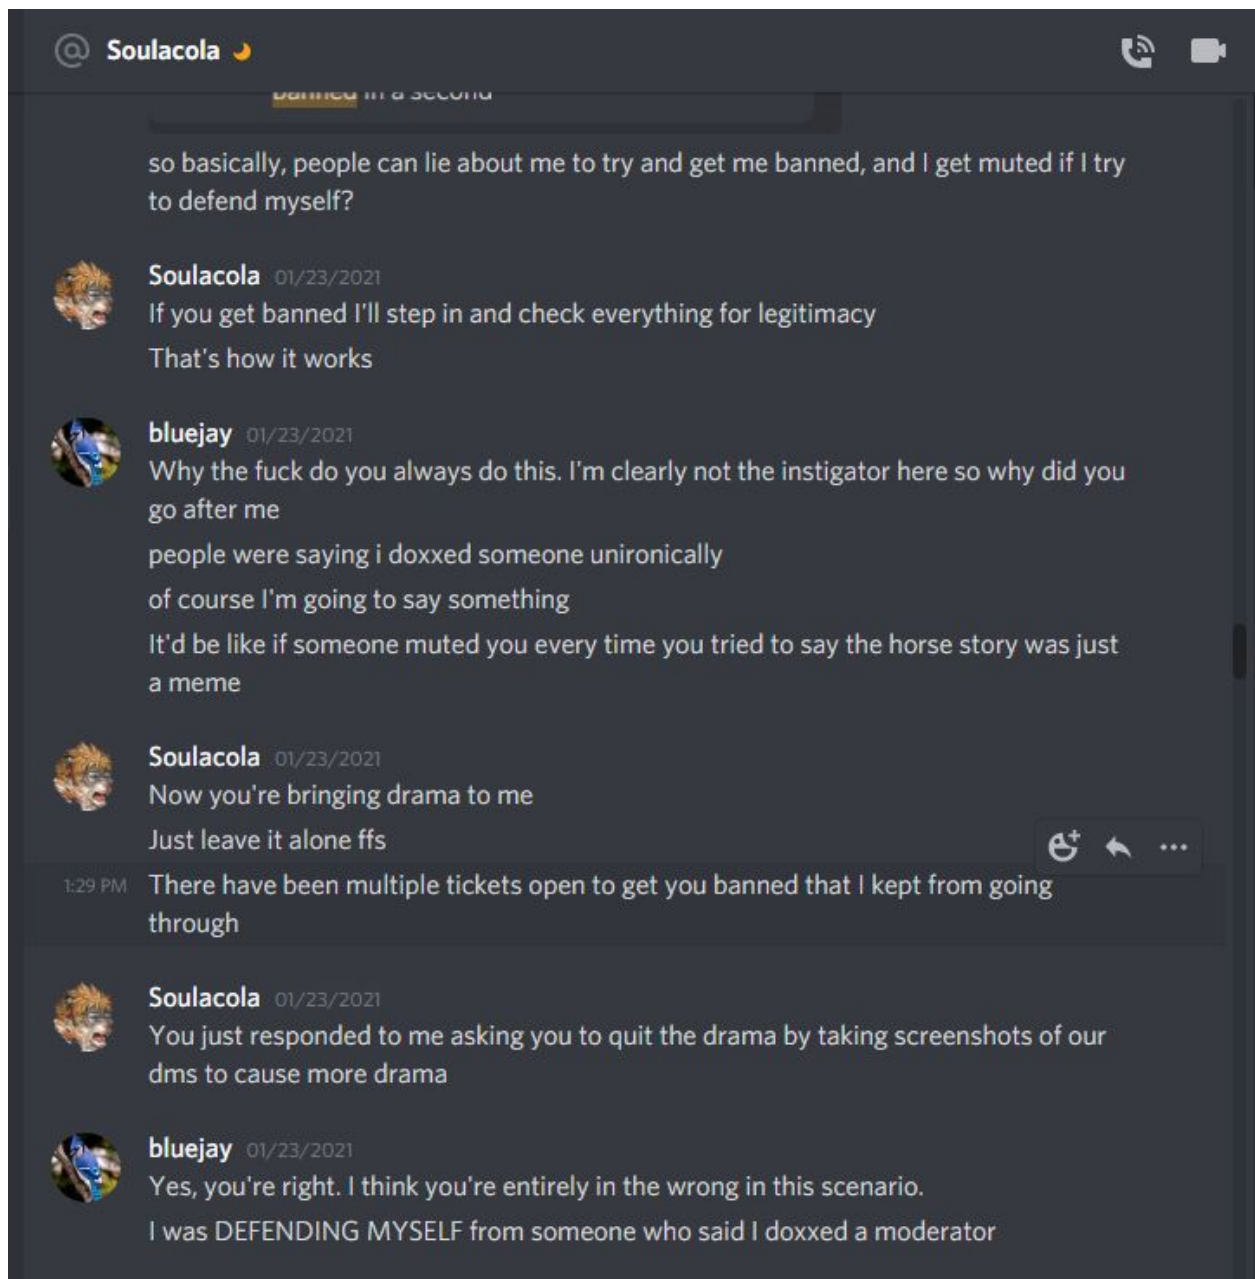

When I woke up in the morning, I saw that I got pinged by ergegr. I looked at the ping and I saw Toucan sam was still telling people that I doxxed Ashy hours later, and I knew for a fact that he was in the VC and saw me vindicate myself

Notice the timestamp, 4:07 AM. This was way into the night and hours after the drama died down.

Horse-Fucker's Tom-Fuckery

I called Toucan sam out on his bullshit. I said he was lying and insulted him for this. Soulacola saw me calling out Toucan Sam to defend myself and muted me for it. It was only a 5 second mute, but the point Soulacola made was that I wasn't allowed to talk about Toucan Sam.

Take a moment to understand the perspective of this: The admin is setting the precedent that someone can lie through their teeth about you and you would get muted/punished for defending yourself.

I believe I made a very good point here. For those who don't know, Soulacola was banned a long time ago from the server for telling a story of how he had sexual intercourse with a horse. He was unbanned, and then of course later became admin (and currently is the effective owner of the server) after he revealed that the horse story was just a joke.

Put that in perspective; SoulaCola did something that was morally reprehensible, he was attacked and criticized for it, but he was allowed to defend himself and thus rose to a position of power within the community because he wasn't weighed down with the accusations against him.

I did something that was just as bad as fucking a horse (doxxing someone is no joke), but like SoulaCola, I did it as a "joke" (or more specifically, I was asked to help someone out). Soulacola muted me for defending myself. This is just the start of the hypocrisy.

Pay close attention to the threats that Soulacola is making in this DM; he's saying that he's the only reason why I wasn't banned (btw the part about multiple tickets against me is a total lie; to my knowledge I had only one ticket that was simply a precautionary thing in regards to how I spoke to someone else).

Yes, you're right. I think you're entirely in the wrong in this scenario.
I was DEFENDING MYSELF from someone who said I doxxed a moderator

Soulacola 01/23/2021

You should've asked before sharing screenshots of a private conversation

bluejay 01/23/2021

well sorry. But I was just showing druggo. I didn't think he would tell other people about it Because of you I'm debating leaving the server again. maybe even get myself banned so I don't come back. Considering that's what you just threatened me with; getting banned for defending myself

Soulacola 01/23/2021

I didn't threaten you at all, I pointed out that I'm basically the only major support you have
I have to deal with people all shitting on you and you come at me with this stuff too

bluejay 01/23/2021

then clearly I misjudged the server because i thought DJ and some of the other mods liked me and supported me when I tried telling them about how this shit (people starting shit with me, knowing that I would reactively defend myself, and then using that as an excuse to get me banned) happens all the time

Soulacola 01/23/2021

No

bluejay 01/23/2021

I've done so much for this server. I have had people call me a pedo, people DM me loli gorn and gay porn, all because I'm the server's punching bag, and you wonder why I don't want to be in that position anymore

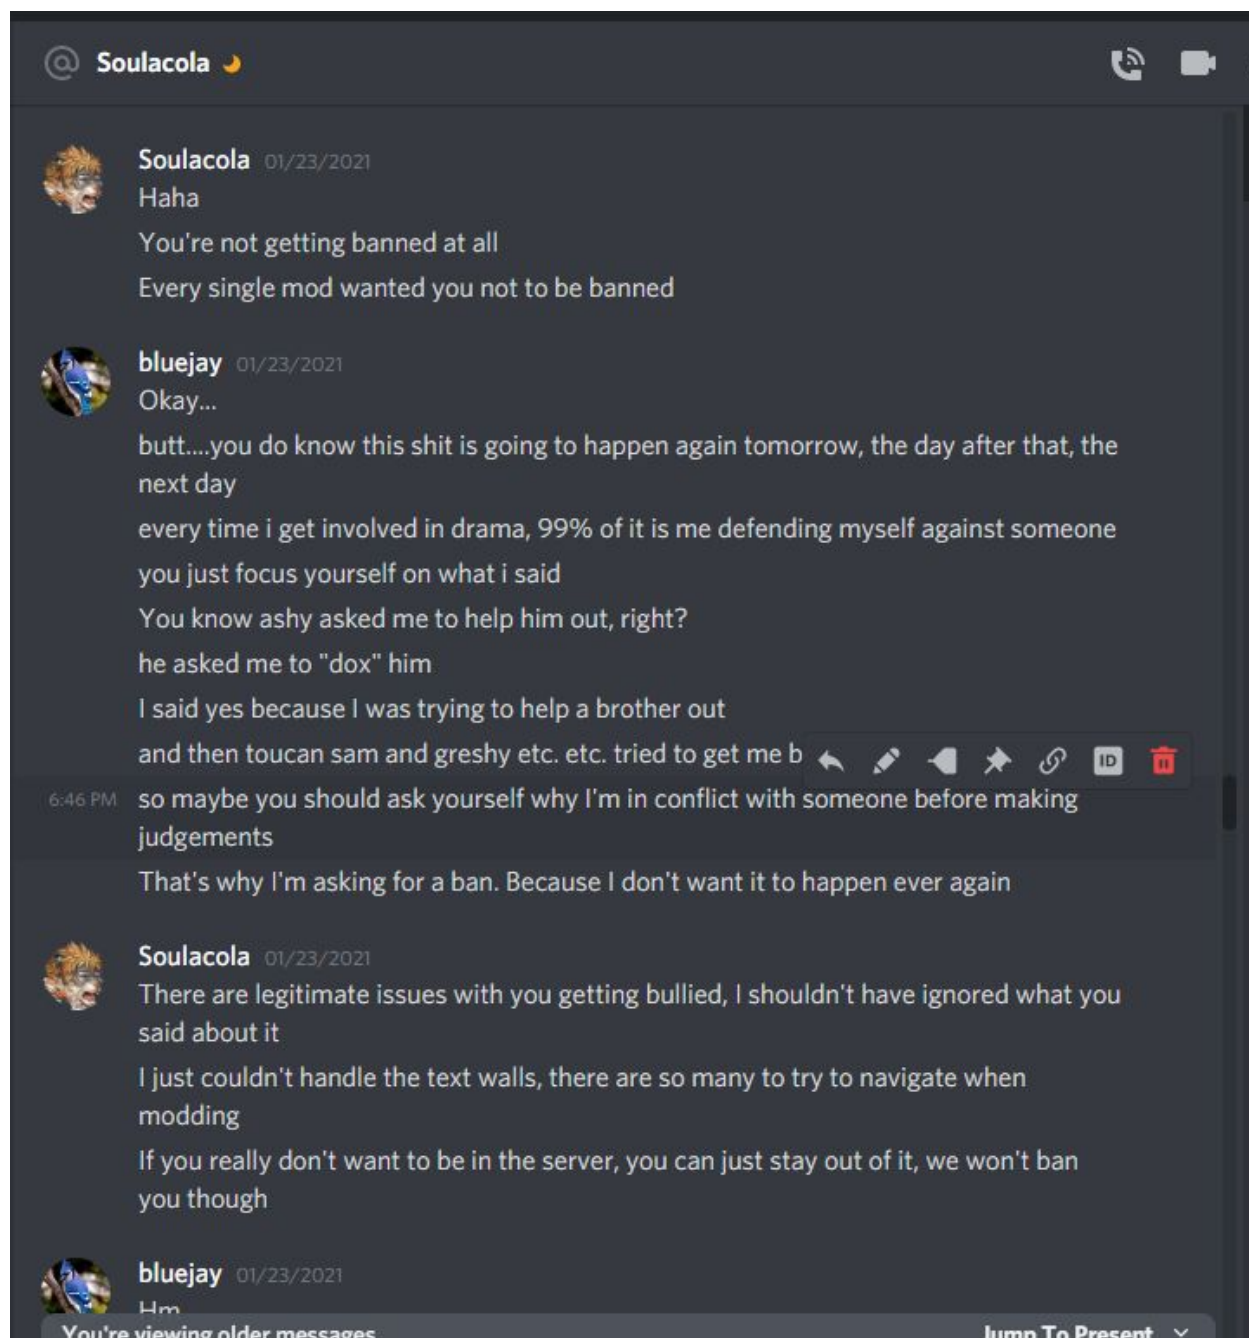

So here is where the situation gets really fucky. (Soulacola deleted one of his DMs in this screenshot, I'll get to that in a minute)

For starters, Soulacola told me that “almost all the mods hate you”; this was another total lie. I had 7 mods on my friend’s list and many more I was on amicable terms with.

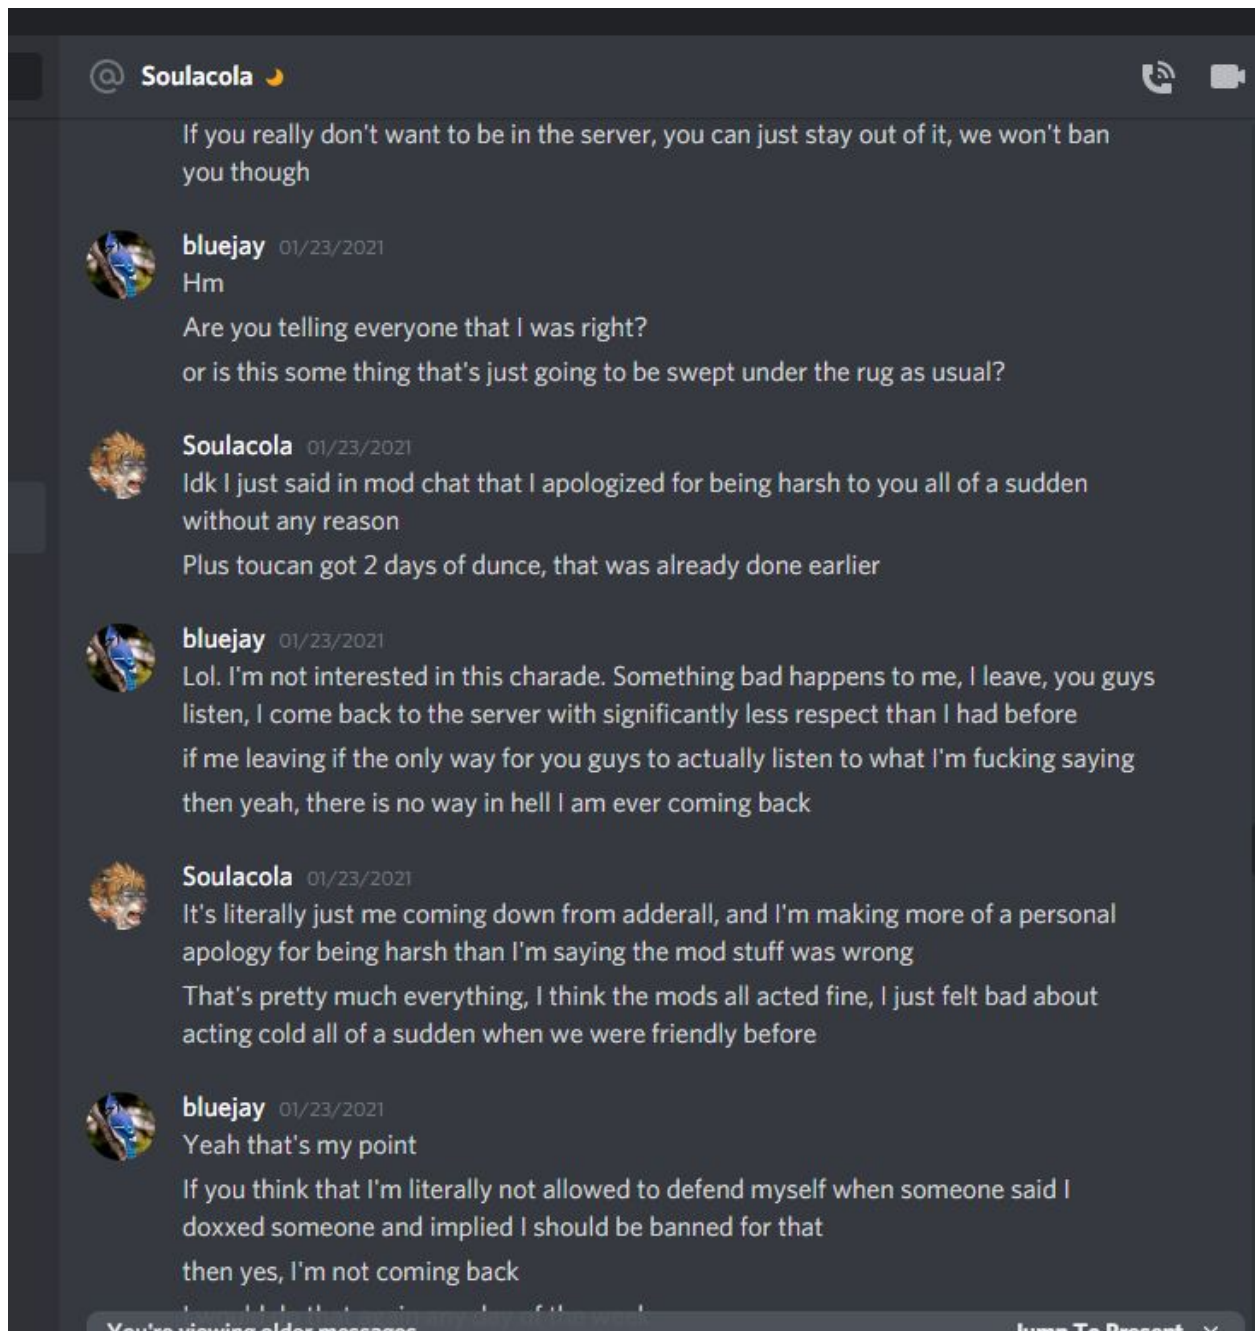

Of course, the fallout of this situation has caused me to lose some of those friends, but I knew that was going to happen.

I explained at the start of this document that I have a desire to make friends with everyone if I can. Soulacola was telling me that the people who I thought were my friends didn't actually like me. Try to imagine how that can make someone feel.

Engineer, the owner, told people that I "tried to turn the mods on each other"; how exactly did I do this? Because when Soulacola told me about how the mods hated me, I went to the mods who I thought were my friends and asked them if what soulacola said was true. This came off as me trying to pit the mods against each other, rather than someone who was genuinely upset at the idea that I wasn't actually welcome in the server. This is another recurring theme in the server; people assume the absolute worst of me in every given situation, and even when that preconceived judgement turns out to be wrong, they don't change their perspectives on me

And here is where it gets really fucking stupid; less than an hour ago, Soulacola told me that he was the only reason why I wasn't banned. Now, he says here "Oh none of the mods wanted to ban you". That is such a bold faced lie, plain and simple. The lie and deception is there as clear as day.

So as I said earlier, soulacola deleted one of his DMs. He mentioned that he was high off adderall when he said all this shit to me. I don't know why he deleted one of his DMs but he forgot to delete the other DM that said he was high off of adderall here as well. You can see that it doesn't make sense why he would mention adderall out of the blue here if he didn't already explain it in more detail earlier. All he showed by deleting one of his DMs is prove that he was incredibly suspicious during this entire incident.

Anyway, so I have 13 pages of this shit and where are we right now? Well, the story so far is that a moderator asked me to help him out, I said yes, I was being harassed by people for what I did to help someone out, and the owner of the server wanted to punish me for defending myself, while also lying about how other people felt about me to make me feel unwelcome in the server.

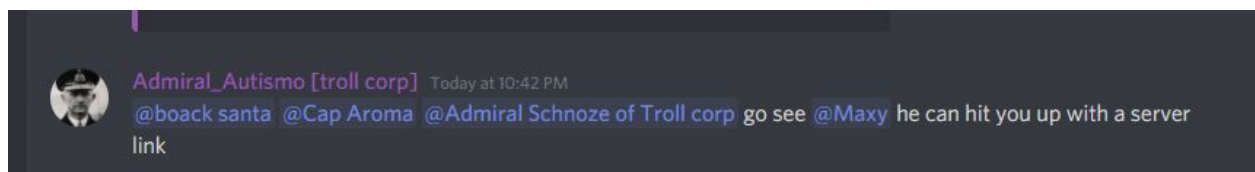

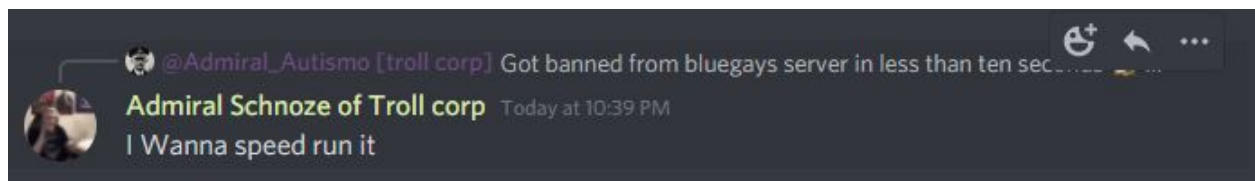

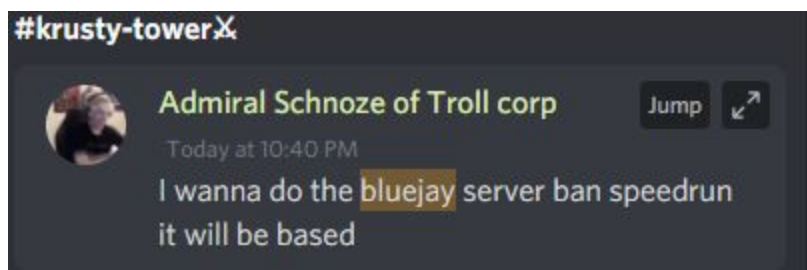

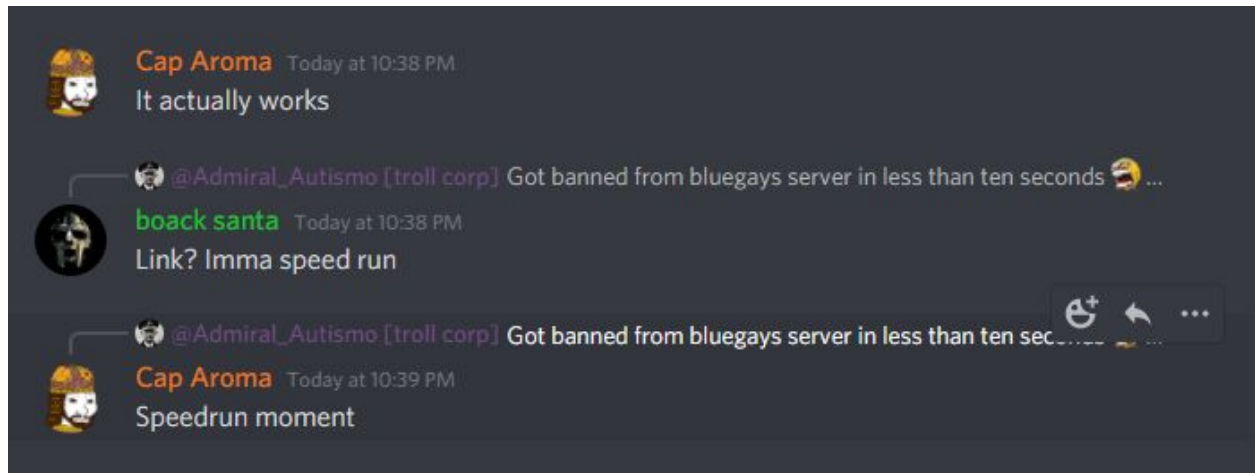

My DMs with Soulacola went back and forth for a while after this. I kept encouraging him to take responsibility for him lying to my face about stuff and causing me to leave the server, and he never once did. He claims that he “apologized” in mod chat for being harsh to me, but in my talks with other moderators, they were not up to speed on the situation. People like Perkele thought I left the server because of how the community treated me, but I left the server because Soulacola made me feel unwelcome by implying that I was close to being banned, that people I thought who were my friends didn’t like me, and most importantly, he was setting the precedent that I was not allowed to defend myself against misinformation

So that’s the story of how I left PCM.

Bluejay’s Nest

After about a day of me being out of PCM, I decided to make my own server. As I said before, I genuinely believed in fostering a culture of emotional connection and friendship, and I wanted my server to be something like that. It wasn’t intended to rival PCM or anything like that, it was just a small server for me and my pals to talk about stuff without the toxic nature of the general community at large.

Within 12 hours, people in PCM were trying to organize raids to my server

Keep in mind; for months I was harassed by the mods and the users for “starting drama and conflict”, yet within hours of me leaving the server, the same people that said this stuff tried to come to my place to start conflict with me?

To me, this was the definitive proof that everything everyone said about me was bullshit.

Not once did I ever organize harassment of someone else in the server. Not once did I dox someone. Yet I was constantly the scapegoat for drama and conflict in the server.

And still, the moment I left the server, PCM users tried to find me to fuck with me on purpose.

That was clear proof that I wasn't actually the problem on the server. I was just the guy that people liked to blame

I talked about it with the mods, or more specifically Skwyd and soulacola. Skwyd, unintentionally led me to believe that the mods weren't doing anything about the guy who was organizing raids on my server

It was a miscommunication, one which I accepted and rephrased what I meant. But yes, I did in fact say that I would report the server because I was led to believe that the server wasn't doing anything about people organizing raids against me

I never reported the server, and I never would in any circumstance other than if the server was allowing TOS violations on their server. It's not my interest to destroy someone else's community.

So after I gave the screenshots to Skwyd and soulacola, they muted the guy who was trying to organize raids for 3 days (we agreed on 5 days, but they changed it because they don't value my opinion clearly), which is a lenient punishment I think.

However, and this is where the story gets REALLY fucking stupid..DJ and some of the other mods (including Ashy, the same guy who I was harassed off the server for trying to help) started to push for me to get banned because they heard me saying I would report the server for not doing anything about the raids.

Saying that you would report the server for raids = permaban. Trying to organize raids = 3 days mute.

And thus, the ticket about me was made.

Sidenote: Before we get into the ticket, it's important to realize that there were 2 raids. In the ticket there were claims that I reported a user named "Taco Cat " for raiding: I did no such thing, and I said as much in Fewlocks the moderator's DMs. I don't know where the other mods got the idea that I said otherwise.

I heard from Soulacola first that I had a ticket made against me.

From where I was standing, it sounded like DJ (Who I considered to be a good friend of mine before this fiasco) was under the impression that I was trying to get PCM banned out of spite for “not getting my way”; that was not my intention. I felt I was unwelcome in PCM at that point and thus went my own separate way, and I was not interested in getting the community banned.

I did in fact report Admiral Autismo (the user who was trying to raid me) to Discord T&S team. I reported him at the same time I messaged the mods about him. I showed Soulacola the email I wrote to discord

It's hard to see, so here is the transcript below

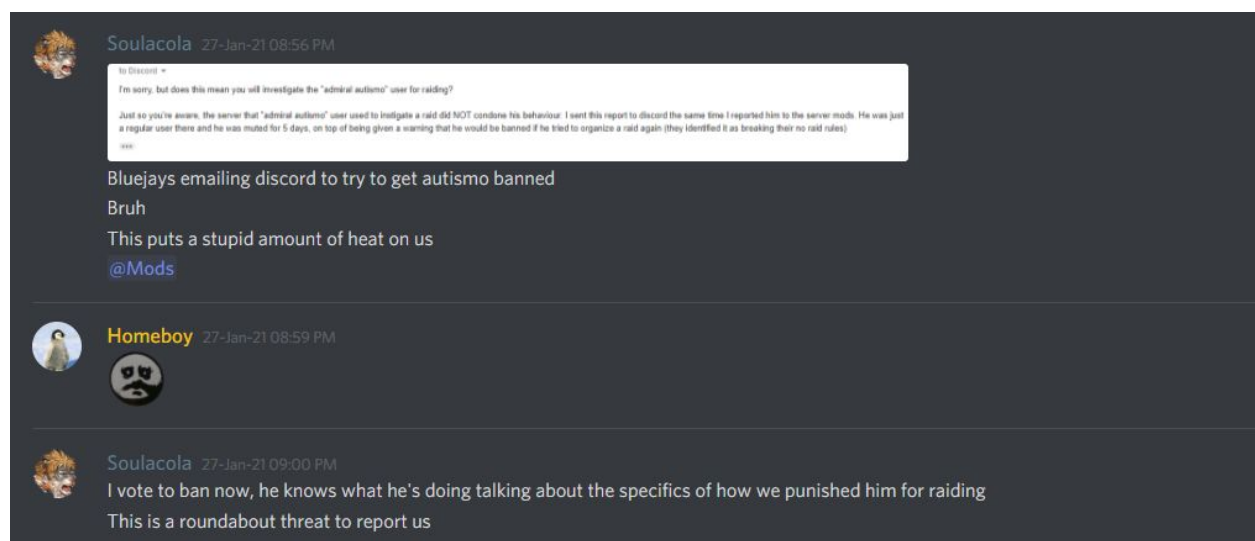

I'm sorry, but does this mean you will investigate the "admiral autismo" user for raiding?

Just so you're aware, the server that "admiral autismo" user used to instigate a raid did NOT condone his behaviour. I sent this report to discord the same time I reported him to the server mods. He was just a regular user there and he was muted for 5 days, on top of being given a warning that he would be banned if he tried to organize a raid again (they identified it as breaking their no raid rules)

You can see that I was actually defending the server. I was explaining that the server muted him for 5 days (and I could have said 3 days, but I lied in favour of the server), and they did not condone his behaviour.

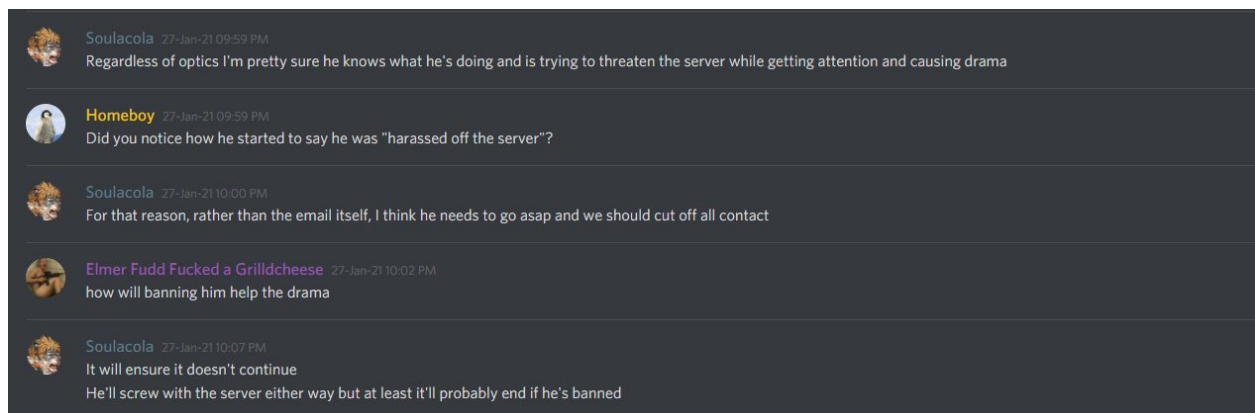

I showed this email to Soulacola because I believed it was proof that I didn't want to "delete PCM" off the face of the map. I showed it to him casually because I thought it was proof that PCM and I could exist separately and hopefully we could come to an understanding at some other point where we admit that we both could have acted better.

What was Soulacola's response? He immediately started ghosting me in our DMs, pushed for me to get banned, and said I was threatening the server.

This literally makes no sense whatsoever. How is defending the server in my fucking email a “roundabout threat to report us”?

I do admit, it was a poor decision to report admiral autismo. It was unlikely that discord would do anything about him and it was more likely that the server would get punished for it. However, it was a mistake in judgement, not malicious intent. I had legitimate reasons to want to report Admiral to Discord because it was my belief that the mods weren't doing anything about it.

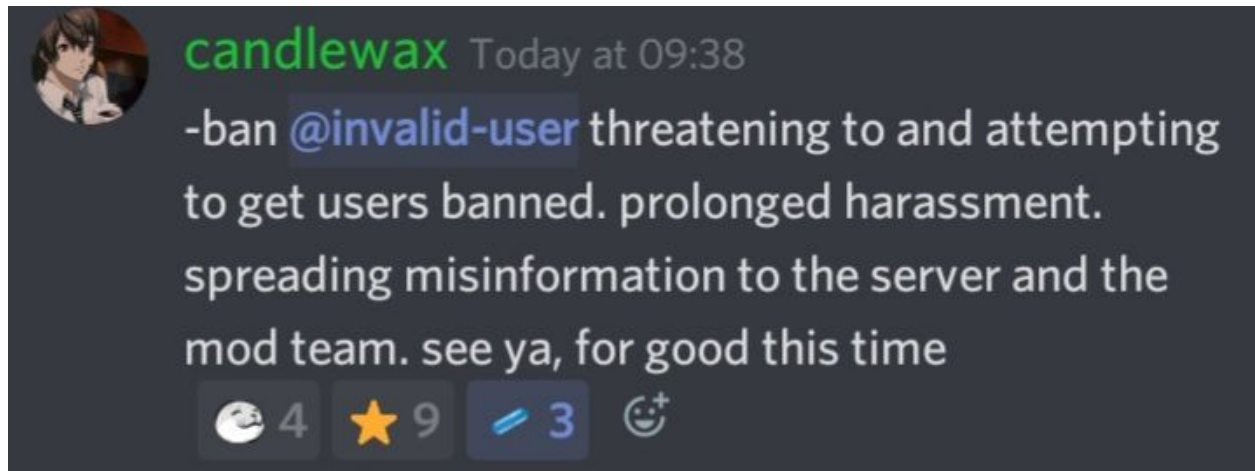

Soulacola went from saying that I threatened to report the server because I had good reason to believe that the server wasn't doing anything about the raids to saying that I did it for “attention and causing drama”.

This is what he said before he saw my email that I wrote. He did a complete 180 on absolutely nothing.

But alas, I was in fact banned...by 7 votes. Which isn't a majority. Soulacola, ashy, DJ, and some other mods rushed through to ban me on absolute nothing. However, “banned for reporting a user for raiding” isn't a good reason to ban. So instead ,I was banned for...this.

It's getting increasingly harder to express my disbelief in this shit. I did not harass anyone, I don't even know who they claimed I harassed (I heard some people say I harassed soulacola but I haven't seen any direct evidence of soula claimed that).

"Spreading misinformation"? What misinformation did I spread? And more importantly, when the fuck was that a rule? Shouldn't Soulacola be demodded for saying that all the mods wanted to ban me? Or how they all disliked me? Isn't that misinformation?

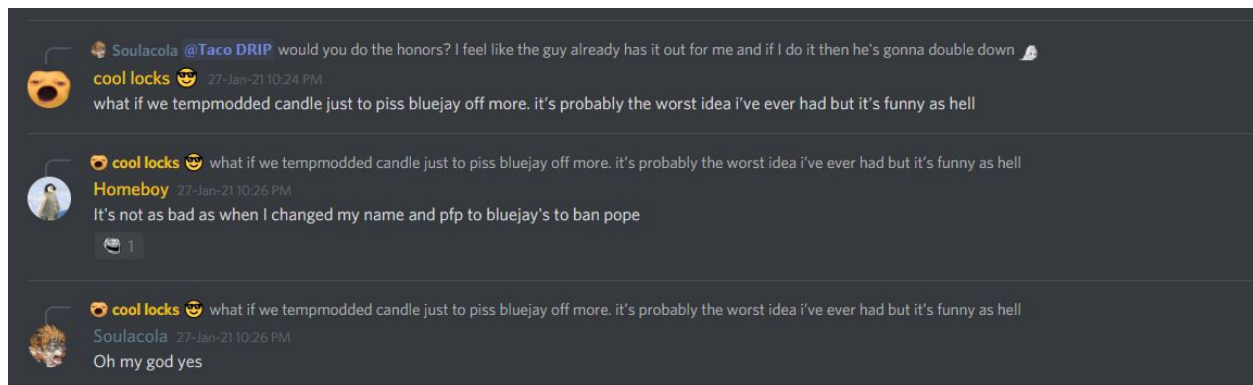

"Threatening to and attempting to get users banned"? Again I literally have no idea what this is supposed to mean. I think they're referring to me reporting admiral to discord. I don't decide what discord does, and I didn't even expect that they would ban him. When soulacola asked me what Admiral's punishment should be, I actually said a 5 day mute. I never recommended a ban.

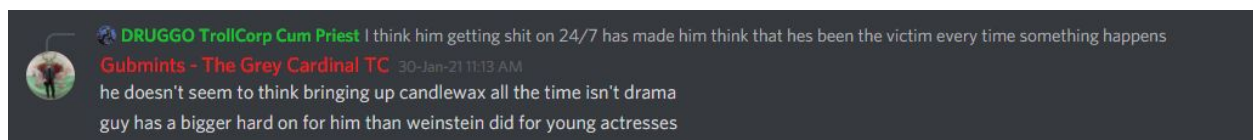

If I “attempted to get users banned”, then why did I say that Admiral shouldn’t be banned?

No evidence of this is given in the ticket. The only evidence that is talked about is the fact that I wrote an email to discord. That’s it; I was banned for reporting a raider to discord.

I want to talk more about the fact that they decided to get Candlewax to ban me, but that's a story for a later time. From what I can tell, the mods just got him involved because they thought it was a spectacle. Keep in mind; Candlewax was muted twice for systemic harassment of me. And they decided to make it a joke by giving him the "honours" of banning me. Whether you hate me, hate candlewax, or hate both of us, involving candlewax in this did nothing but "cause drama", which is the exact same shit that these mods constantly bitch about.

On top of that

I have not spoken to or about Candlewax in, what, 3 weeks? These mods wanted to involve Candlewax in the ticket, they wanted to give him the clout of banning me, while at the same time, saying that I'm the only who always brings up Candlewax for "drama".

There is literally no excuse for this. The ticket is full of accusations and character slander against me while the mods do the exact same thing; this is a literally a ticket that was supposed to ban me, and yet the mods did EVERYTHING that they claimed I did which deserved a ban.

It's at this point we realize the true ineptitude of the moderation team of PCM Many of them (correctly) pointed out that I actually didn't do anything to get banned, and banning me would just escalate the situation.

 Homeboy 27-Jan-21 05:57 PM
I'm afraid banning him can escalate the situation, because he won't just vanish, he has his own server with members from here and he might start trouble in dm's or through these people here

 few Lockes 27-Jan-21 10:39 PM
i dont like it
bluejay reported autismo for breaking TOS, explicitly said that our server did not condone it and took action banning him feels like it would escalate things, letting candlewax do it is an even worse idea this is just going to piss him off, it wont stop shit

 Homeboy 27-Jan-21 10:40 PM
@candlewax he threatened to

 few Lockes 27-Jan-21 10:40 PM
if he wants to report our server he'll be even more inclined to do it after this few Lockes banning him feels like it would escalate things, letting candlewax do it is an even worse idea

 Homeboy 27-Jan-21 10:40 PM
It is a terrible idea

 Gubmints - The Grey Cardinal TC 27-Jan-21 11:15 PM
Quite a serious ticket with an instance of an adult user making minors feel uncomfortable - noo needs a majority

Some guy who lives off drama threatening to report - yes ban

 Homeboy Or is it 10?

 Engineer 27-Jan-21 11:29 PM
Yes, this is why i want tickets done when everyone can see them, not for Soul to dm me at fucking 6 am when I'm still sleeping
Not only that but I'm stepping, don't ban Bluejay at all
It wont make him go away, it'll piss him off
All you're doing is making another Mech

 RiEn 28-Jan-21 01:00 AM
Why did they fucking ban him
We're making mech 2.0

 RiEn We're making mech 2.0

 Engineer 28-Jan-21 08:43 AM yes, this is fucking insane

They were right. I was happy to let PCM do it's own thing and let bygones be bygones and have my own server to myself. When I was banned for bullshit reasons (literal lies and slander against me), I felt compelled to spread the story of the mod abuse bullshit. It's part of the reason why I'm writing this now. The mods intentionally drove me away from the server, and they couldn't leave well enough alone and kept spreading false stories about me and what I did.

It's at this point I should talk about the whole "why did you ask to be banned" thing. Basically, I was under the impression that the PCM mods had serious problems with how they handled the server. I wanted to get banned for 2 reasons: 1) I wanted to prevent myself from ever coming back and 2) I was hoping to get banned for a bullshit reason (like soulacola banning me for defending myself against toucan sam) as I hoped that would invoke change in how the mods actually behaved. In my experience, since I joined the server the mods became more and more authoritarian. People got banned and muted and warned for minor offenses, sometimes people got muted/banned for stuff that wasn't even rules (i.e. "drama", or in this case, "attempting to get users banned")

The mods mistook my criticizing my ban as me saying that I shouldn't be banned. I wanted to be banned and I also wanted to expose the ban as being bullshit. I made that very clear in my DMs with moderators, but I was unbanned because they didn't have enough votes (on top of the fact that they didn't have a reason to ban me in the first place)

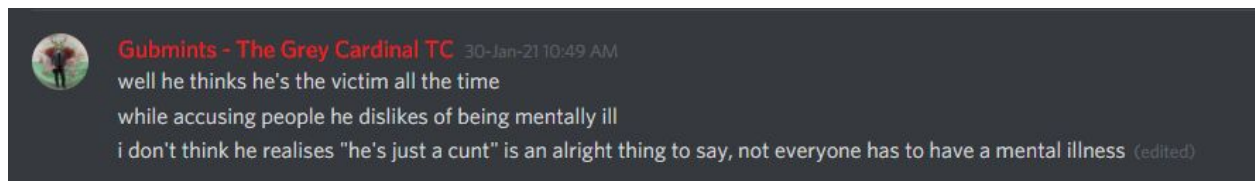

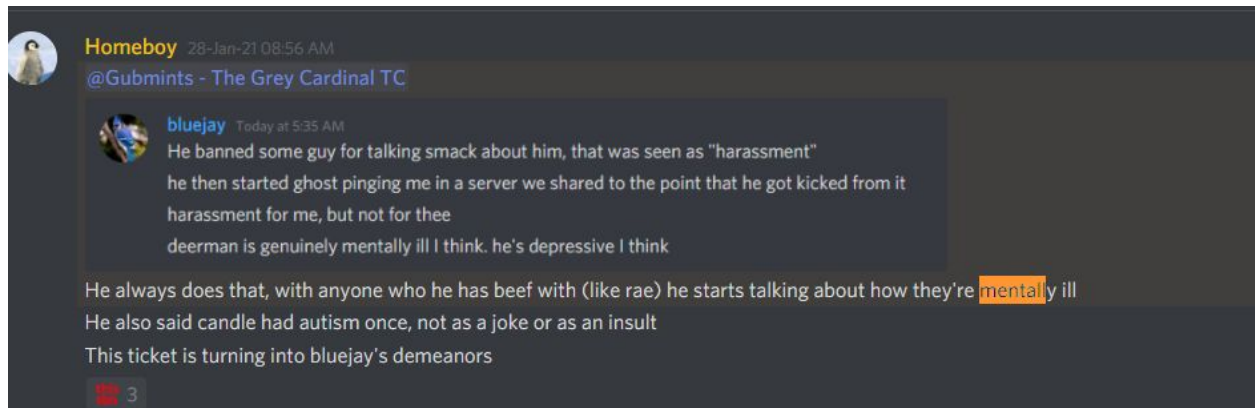

The ticket goes on for a long time and I can't cover each individual message but there is 3 things that I want to cover in particular, all of which have to do with mod hypocrisy and abuse

For starters, homeboy and gubmint seem to think that I have a "habit" of falsely accusing people of being mentally ill

Homeboy 28-Jan-21 09:03 AM

I hate it how he's always accusing people he doesn't like of being mentally ill, candle with the autism, deerman with the depression, rae with being bipolar, I'm just here wondering when is Dr. Jay gonna give me my diagnosis

For starters, let's address this piece by piece; Rae is in fact bipolar. Everyone knows that she is. This isn't me making something up, rae has bipolar disorder. The point I made when I said rae was bipolar was in regards to the fact that she had incredibly unpredictable mood swings in the discord server and very few people tried to offer her a helping hand, and instead encouraged her to harass anyone she decided to pick a fight with. I was trying to make a point about how the server could better treat people with mental illness.

When I said Candlewax is autistic (if I did, anyway, I don't remember), it was certainly just a petty insult. It's the same thing as calling someone retarded, or Soulacola saying I had aspergers. I never went around telling people that candle wax is autistic unironically.

Sidenote: In all honesty though they do kinda have a point. If I say something like "autistic" or "retarded", it's an ugly word that I should never say because it's discriminatory. That has nothing to do with what they're talking about, but I do agree I should never call anyone "autistic" or "Retarded". If calling people "autistic" is somehow a no-no then...

I do admit I shouldn't have talked about Deerman's mental state. Turns out he was going through some personal stuff when I said that. I don't know if I was wrong to call him depressive but it wasn't my business to say so. It was just what I personally understood from how he talked to me, as he seemed to be in some sort of mental distress.

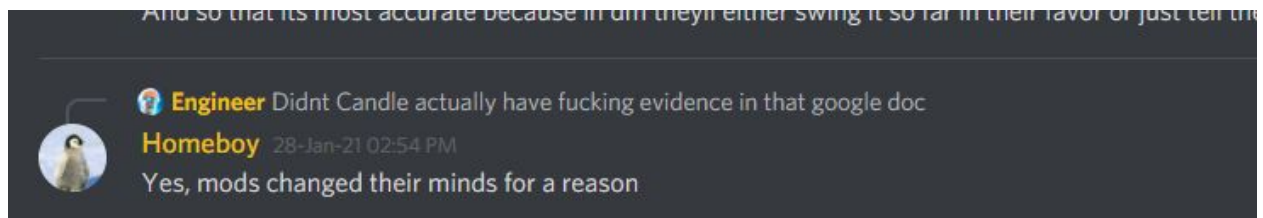

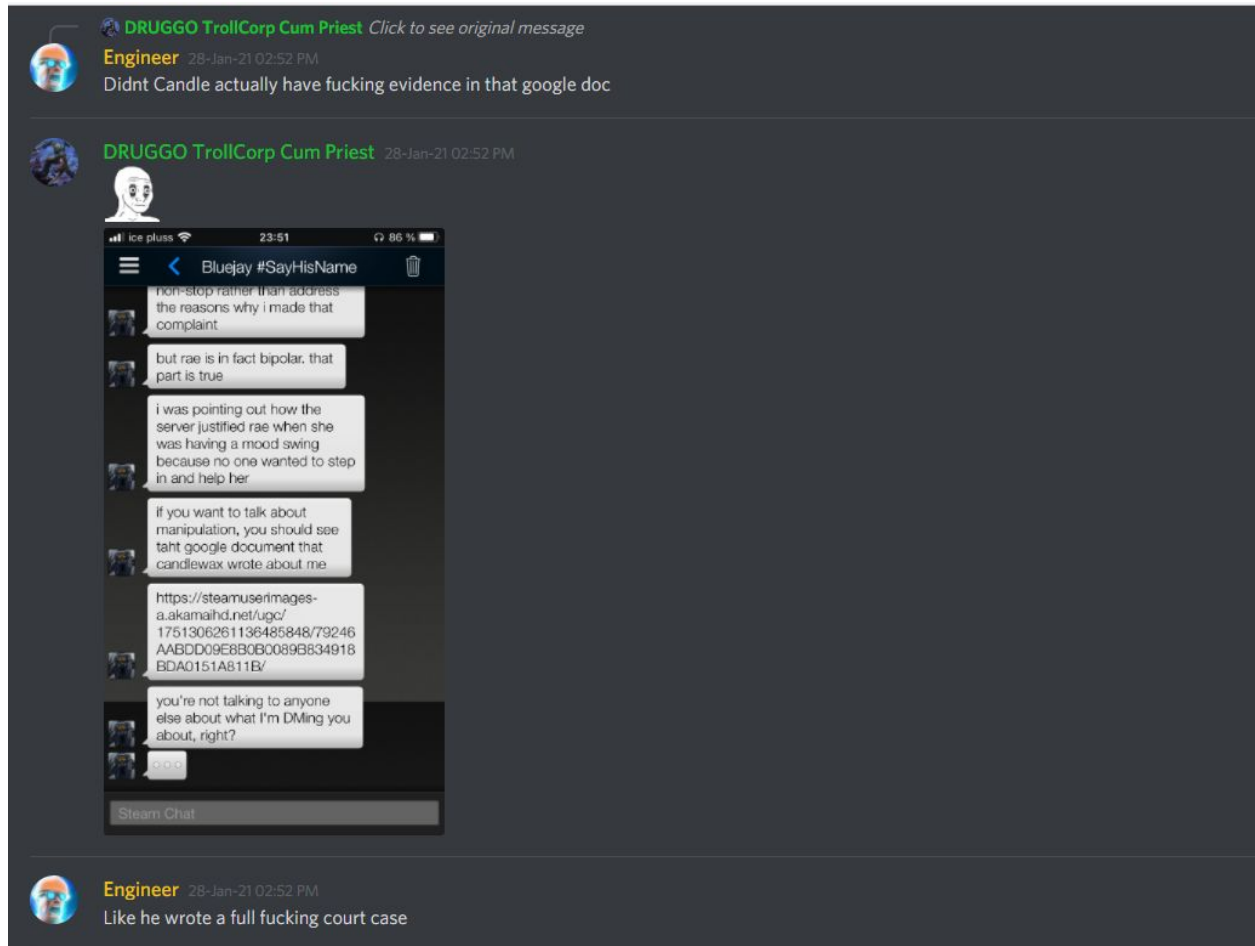

So the mods are 1 for 3 on this point. But it's about to get a whole lot worse.

The exact same moderators who talk shit about me “accusing people of being mentally ill” accuse me of being mentally ill.

It gets worse.

Homeboy, Engineer and some other mods referenced the infamous Candlewax document. I will address candlewax's document at a later point in time, but the point is that they supported the candlewax document and said it was a legitimate piece of evidence that influenced the case.

This is how Candlewax ended his court “document”

Conclusion

Bluejay is a paranoid, mentally ill, hypocritical, mess of a person trying to manipulate mods to ban me and I won't have that. Remember:

bluejay Today at 12:08 AM

I don't agree with guys who manipulate mods to get people banned for shit he does

He accused me of being mentally ill. This was before I used the insult “autistic” against him btw.

So now you have pretty blatant proof that the mods have different rules for different people. The mods support Candlewax's document, even though he accused me of being mentally in it.

It actually gets WAY worse though.

Soulacola 28-Jan-21 08:48 AM

Ok, so he has an alt. That is also bannable

Homeboy 28-Jan-21 08:48 AM

He wanted to get banned yet he has an alt to check the server out?

Gubmints - The Grey Cardinal TC 28-Jan-21 08:48 AM

Someone call him out on it

Soulacola 28-Jan-21 08:48 AM

The dude is a psycho I'm starting to realize

The mods got really upset over me having an alt on the server.

I joined with an alt during the first raid, as I had to collect screenshots for Soulacola and Skwyd. This was before I got banned and thus having an alt lurk for screenshots of rule breaking activity isn't actually breaking any rules. I didn't scan the server every day for stuff, literally all I did was I used my alt to collect screenshots of people trying to raid me. The mods are, predictably making a huge deal out of fucking nothing in a desperate attempt to justify a completely unjustified banned.

So the same mods that try to ban me for having an alt on the server despite me not being banned at the time put alts on MY server to collect screenshots?

The absolute hypocrisy is outstanding.

I suppose it's fair to point out at this point that I really did not get an unbiased "ticket"; literally the entire ticket is just people calling me autistic, "sperg", stupid, annoying. In my experience I very clearly remember that people who have emotional connection to the ticket have to step back so the bans actually have merit. Instead, in their incompetence, the mods allowed people who very clearly held grudges against me for some petty bullshit reason to vote to ban me on...nothing.

Just so you know, I didn't ban Deerman's alt because I don't ban people for no reason on my server.

Here's another thing to talk about, and admittedly maybe I was wrong in this situation however you're not talking to anyone else about what I'm DMing you about, right?

No im not okay good

i've had that problem in the past i talk to a mod and try to vent about something and then later it becomes a ticket with screenshots of my DMs

that's another reason why there was so much drama involving me as well

Steam Chat

So druggo, someone who I thought was my friend and confidant, was sharing DMs of me ranting about the server to him.

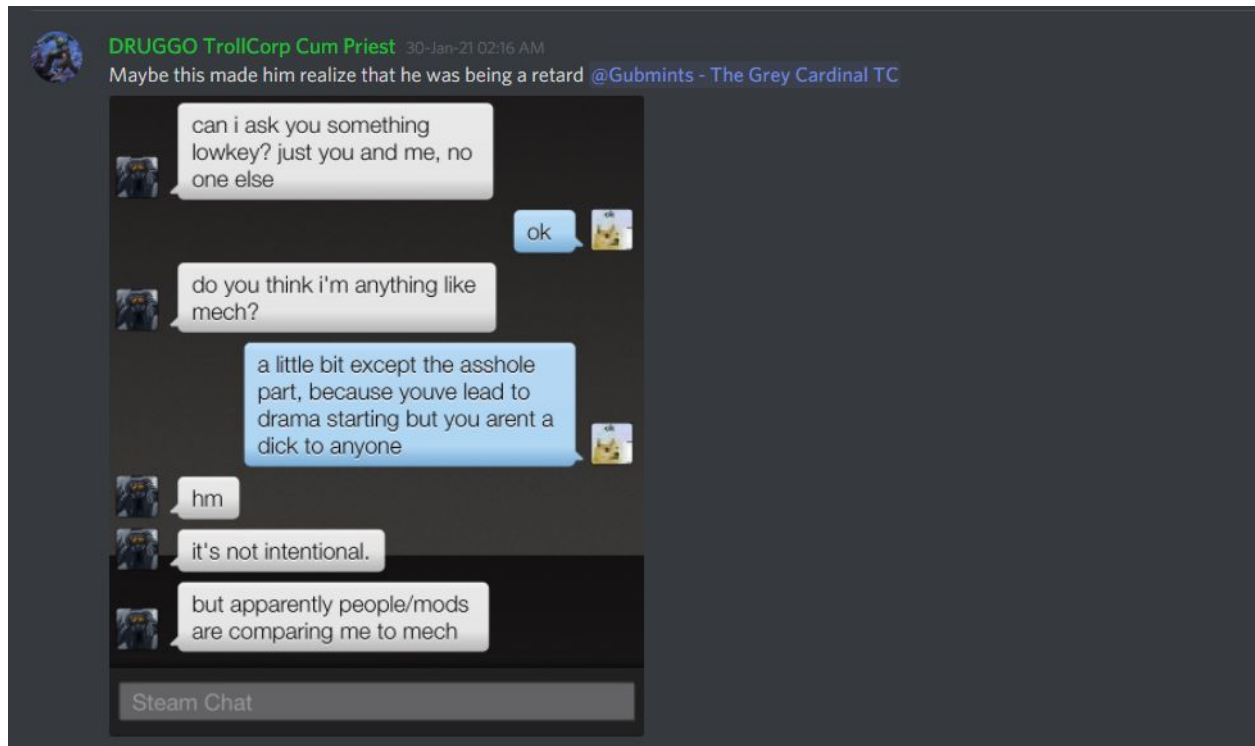

I was just venting. I did not expect to be taken seriously and this is why I asked “Are you going to share DMs of me?” He said no, so I went ahead and started venting.

What someone says when they're venting should never be taken without a HUGE grain of salt. They're not being serious, they're just trying to let off some stress. Druggo sharing DMs of me when I was just trying to let off some stress over being forced out of a server I was in for 5 months just so that he could laugh at me and call me a “retard” and “AIDs” was totally inappropriate. It's far worse than anything that the mods claim I did here in the ticket, and I got banned for that petty shit.

This is the same thing. I'm just joking, I was just kidding around, but Druggo used this as an excuse for his mod buddies to say incredibly hateful shit about how i'm a "neckbeard". Over a fucking joke.

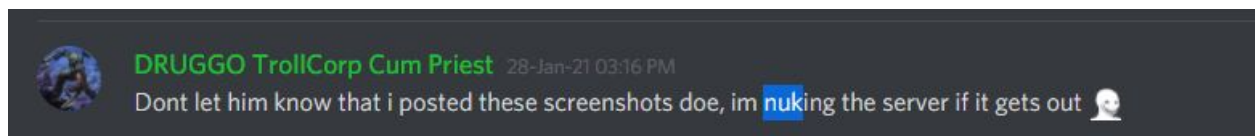

If this is a ticket, then why is it so emotional? Why is it mostly just a "Hey let's circlejerk over how we hate this one guy!"?

Again, this is more of the same shit that I'm talking about. I confided in someone that I trusted and instead of just talking to me like a normal human being he shared it with his mod buddies. This stuff had no relevance to the ticket.

Remember when Soulacola said at the start "you should ask before sharing private screenshots"? Not only did Druggo not ask, but he actually lied and said he wasn't sharing it. Again, different rules for different people.

The sad thing is that Druggo knows what he's doing is wrong

He knows that sharing private DMs of me where he promised to not share anything was wrong on so many levels; it's a betrayal of trust, it's not relevant to the ticket, and if anything all it did was make the ticket less justifiable since it was based on character assassination and slander.

On one final point, if you want proof that the mods will lie about people in order to justify their ban, check it out

Ashy said he saw “proof” that I wrote an email where I blamed the server. I wonder what email he saw, since it certainly wasn’t mine.

Homeboy Tirade

I just want a little bit about Homeboy in particular because I think he’s a good example of how the mods are hypocrites. Homeboy is probably the most inconsistent and emotionally driven moderator as you can see in the ticket but there are other examples of him being a massive prick.

Homeboy likes to mute/warn people for "Drama". Drama isn't a rule, but okay. Man's got strict standards...except when he goes to a different server to try and organize harassment of someone (me)

Homeboy Today at 22:08

I want him to at least say a word before getting banned though (edited)

Brb

Gonna invite him

!Rae 🌵 And you're not drunk yet!?

Dr. Retard M.D. (Retard) Today at 22:08

I am but I'm now drinking wine

Jorge Today at 22:08

Bluejay said he wouldn't join this server

He tried inviting me to a server knowing that I would get trolled/mod-abused. Now that sounds like drama to me, especially before shortly before this I asked him to leave me alone

The mod that warns people for drama will go to a different server to organize harassment of you if you ask him to leave you alone.

Conclusion

So, I've written about almost 70 pages of this shit over 5 hours. Where are we at the end of this? Well, the mods made a pact to not contact me because they think that ignoring me would "stop the drama"

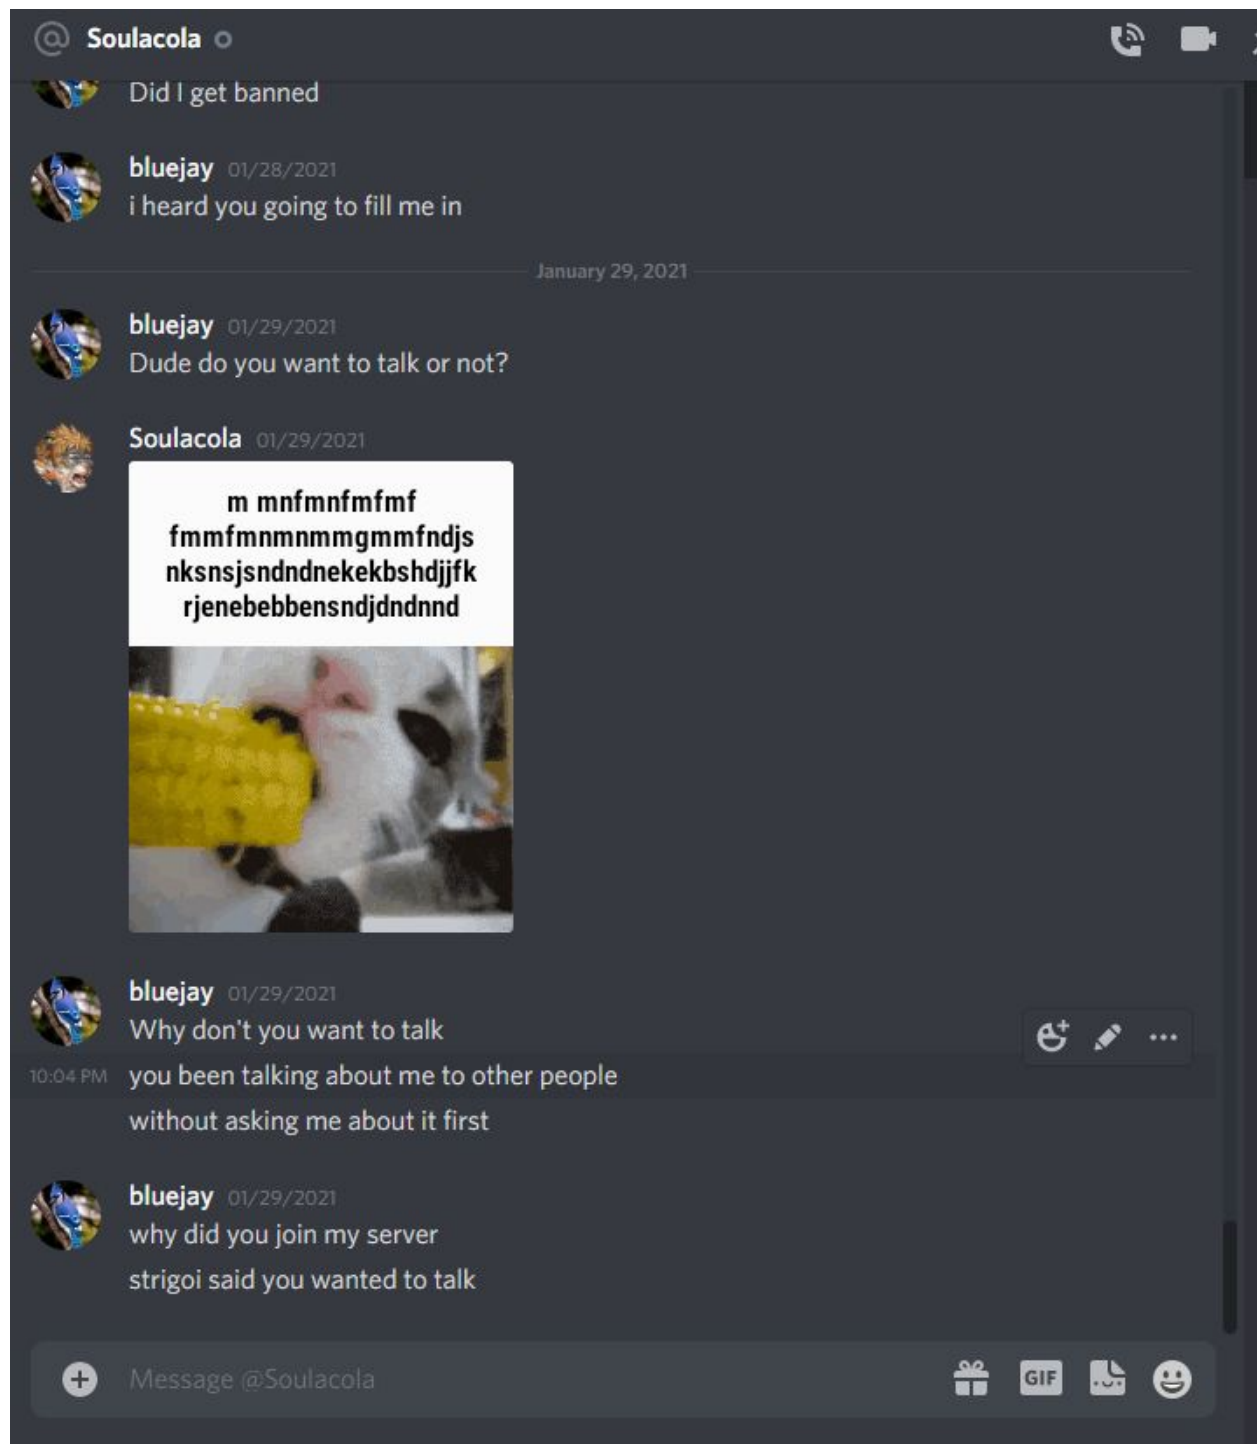

Normally, they would be right. I don't like drama, I never did, I just want people to be friends and happy with each other. The only time I talked about my time in PCM in my own server was when other people asked me about it.

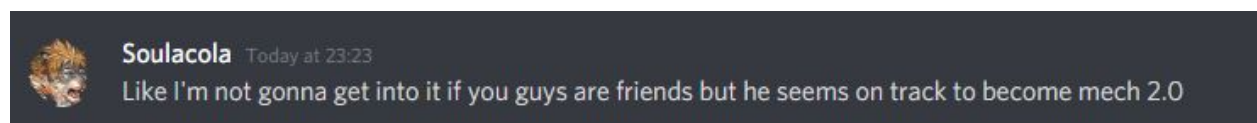

However, there was some bad blood between me and the mods (and the server at a whole) so I wanted to talk about it with Soulacola to hopefully come to some sort of understanding. Even the owner (who said my ban was a mistake) wanted me to "Bury the hatchet". I thought the best way to do that was via communication

This is how soulacola responded to me when I just wanted to talk to him to see if we could come to an understanding.

Soulacola was telling people about how I truly felt (saying I wanted to destroy the server) while intentionally ignoring me all because I reported one of his users to discord staff.

All the evidence shows that I was pushed away by the mods (mostly soulacola), and at the end of it, it was soulacola who refused to compromise and refused to be reasonable; he wanted to tell everyone about me but didn't want to talk to me to avoid a conflict.

Epilogue: Candlewax Shenanigans

This is the final point I want to cover, as I believe Candlewax's document is the crux of the misinformation campaign against me. here is the document if you want to read for yourself:

https://docs.google.com/document/d/1v7G6aHO4KClizpjZcnZtRU\_I2boBXLyvSVEVdR92PM/edit

For those who don't know, Candlewax was muted a while ago because he ignored ergegr's directive that he should stop talking about me because it did nothing but cause drama. I made the effort to ignore Candlewax myself, actually.

In Candlewax's defense, he wrote a google document "defending" himself, and rather than ask me for my opinion on it, the mods took him at his word and thus gave him a far lighter punishment than he was originally slated for.

Normally I wouldn't care about this, but as it turns out, our most favourite watermelon has been sending his document to people months after the drama had subsided. It was basically his "how to influence someone's opinion towards bluejay" free card

On top of that, engineer and homeboy both directly told me multiple times that I lied about the entire thing because candlewax's document somehow proved he was telling the truth, and candlewax to this day claims I manipulated the mods to try and get him banned.

I have never wrote an official response to his document...until now. Let's not waste any time (Warning: Most of this drama is 3 months old and thus it relies a lot on testimony, unfortunately I don't keep screenshots of everything everyone said like Candlewax does)

So, about a month ago, I had known Bluejay as the type to overreact to shit. Everyone knew it. So basically, Monkey made jokes about Bluejay being a pedophile. I still don't know all the details, but when I saw Bluejay complaining about it, I sent this screenshot and made this joke:

Okay, so basically, the drama between me and Candlewax started when he saw me complaining about another guy named BrassMonkey who was telling people I was a pedophile who asked underage users for nudes. This was not a joke or anything, it was just some random person spreading lies for no apparent reason (BrassMonkey has since been banned, and his false accusations towards me was an influence on that ban)

Candlewax decided to chime in by saying the exact same thing. He told people I was a pedophile who asked nudes from minors, and also pinged mods to say he was “100% serious”.

Candlewax was not my friend, I literally did not know the guy. He was some random person in a discord server and the very first thing he said to me was accusing me of being a pedo. You can understand how an average person might be a tad bit upset by this.

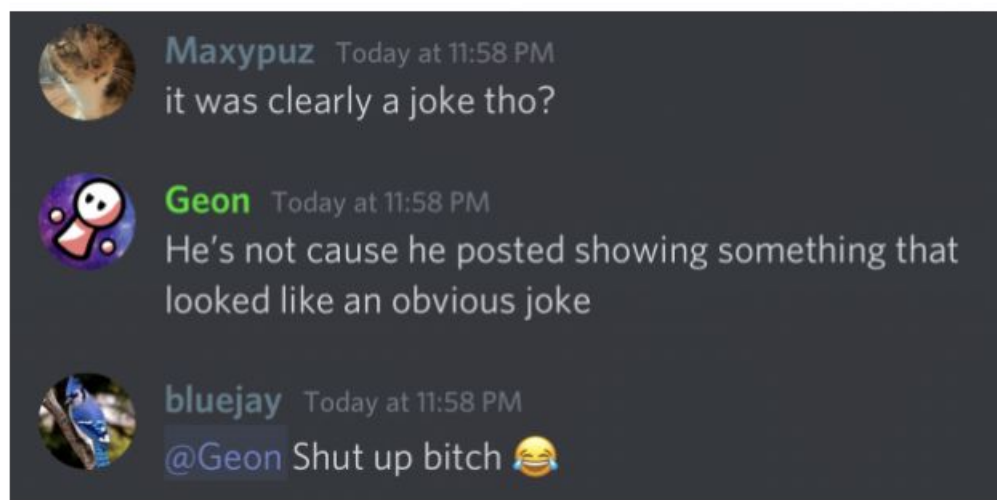

What’s even stranger is that Candlewax is admitting in his opening paragraph that he accused me of being a pedo simply to make me upset, and that he had no intention of it simply being a “joke”

What bothered me more than just the pedo accusations was about how Candlewax acted to everyone else on the server. Candlewax gave Ikonovich (an old mod/user) TONS of shit because Ikonovich made an inappropriate joke a couple months before Candlewax said I was a pedo. Candlewax also regularly complained about how “hate speech” etc. etc. should be banned. To me, it came off as incredibly fake and hypocritical. So yeah, it was not a good first impression, and I didn’t particularly enjoy how a long-time established user decided to dunk on me by calling me a pedo in our first encounter when he knew full well that I would be upset by this

It was clearly a joke and almost everyone makes jokes like that. In fact, Bluejay tried going into Mech's server and lie when we both met Geon, who agreed that it was obviously a joke.

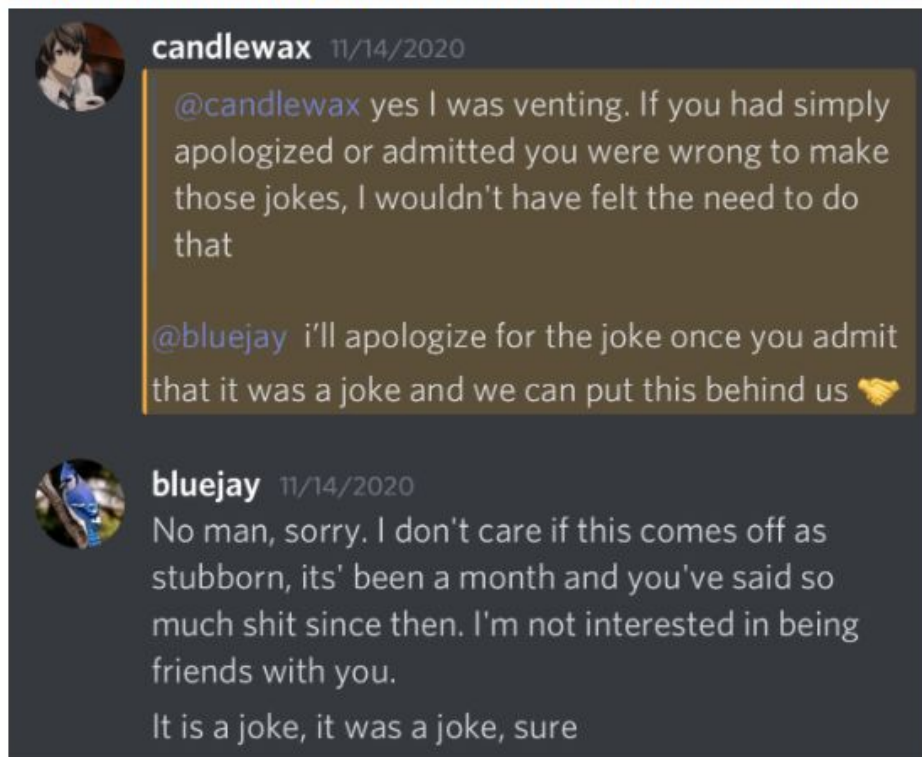

Candlewax claims I lied without providing any examples of me lying. The screenshot he showed has me saying to Geon “I’m not here to give you evidence”. This is not a well-made point, his text has no relation to the out-of-context screenshot.

This is another nonsensical out-of-context screenshot. What exactly does this prove? I never said it wasn't a joke, the point I was making was that it was an incredibly fucked up joke from some guy who gives shit to people for making jokes that he doesn't like. Geon and the rest were immediately discounting me by hiding behind "it's just a prank bruh". Maybe I was a bit rude to Geon unnecessarily, but I did apologize to him at the end of the night...which Candlewax conspicuously left out, obviously.

Bluejay would go on to accuse me of being serious for weeks (without evidence) even though he knew the whole time that it was a joke. He still does it to this day, despite admitting that he knew it was a joke the whole time.

This is where it gets really unacceptable. For starters, his text claims I "accused him of being serious", even though the screenshot shows that I acknowledge it was a joke.

Second, and this is even worse, Candlewax once again maliciously crops my messages to fit his narrative

This is the full message. He cropped out the 2nd half of my message intentionally because he wanted to change what I was saying. His version of my message was intended to make me look stubborn and unable to reason or justify why I disliked his “joke”, where as my version (i.e. the full version that isn’t cropped in half) explains that, although it was a joke, it was something that was incredibly inappropriate.

One of Bluejay’s claims is that I pinged mods and told them I was serious. Holy shit dude I cannot stress how much bullshit that claim is. What happened is that Smelly asked me if I was serious, and I responded “100% serious bro no joke.” which is a joking way to say that I was kidding.

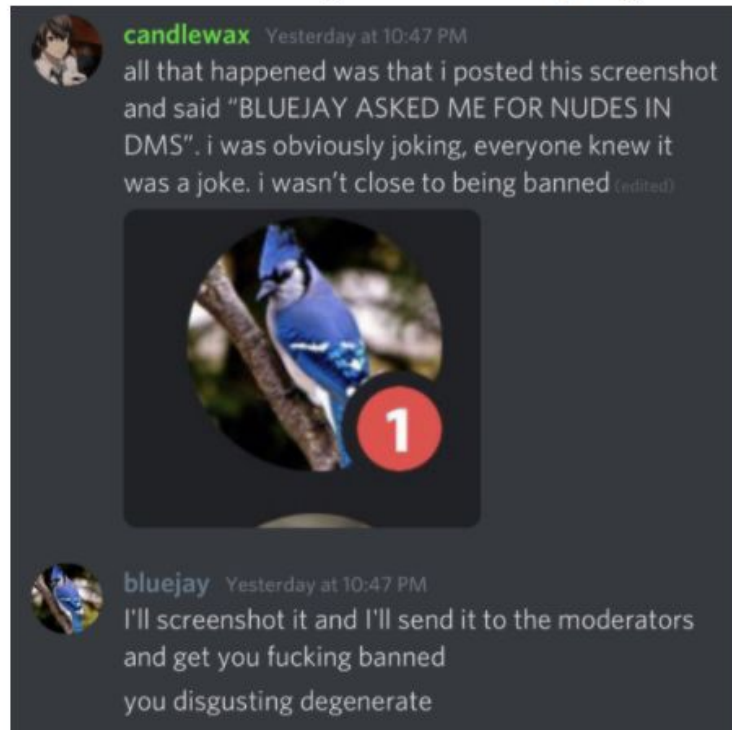

“I never pinged mods seriously seriously, I just pinged them and said I was serious!”

Maybe candlewax reminds the false accusations of a federal crime differently than I did, but not sure how he can say I’m bullshitting when he posts a screenshot of someone admitting that he did what I said he did.

So now we've established that Bluejay lied and manipulated people for weeks on end even DMing mods in an attempt to get me banned.

"Established?" Nothing was established, none of your screenshots have any relation to the text and the only screenshot that might have made a valid point was cropped maliciously to change the tone of my message.

I never "DMed " any mods to get candlewax banned, actually. In fact, Candlewax has pushed for me to get banned more times than I have him (which is zero, I never have said candlewax should be banned at any point, unless as an obvious joke).

Once again, this an out of context screenshot. He's missing the preamble where I said that if he called me a pedo again he could get banned for it, I was going off of what DJ told me about how Candlewax was in the wrong for his "joke". Again, he maliciously cropped out the context, but you can see that the screenshot makes no sense. Notice how I'm saying "I'll screenshot it"? What would I screenshot? Where's the context? What am I referring to?

Fun fact: I showed one of my friend's these screenshots before I wrote this document, and he showed me this from candlewax's server

candlewax Yesterday at 11:30 PM

i'm so manipulative i manipulated the test into thinking i'm not multiple contradictions in this ONE screenshot. I genuinely can't believe anyone took him seriously after he said this.

So we've established that he's manipulated mods that same night, and we've also established that he's against pedo jokes. So why the fuck would he say something like that?

I've said this once, and I'll say it again: Every accusation from Bluejay is a confession. There's nothing he's accused me of that he hasn't also done. It's insane.

It's quite clear that Candlewax doesn't understand irony, or satire. I don't believe he's stupid enough to think that I would unironically call him a pedo in the same breath as me criticizing him for calling me a pedo.

The point I was making is that I was throwing his shit, his "jokes", back in his face. I was trying to see how Candlewax would react, and since he's using it as evidence against me, I guess that means he doesn't like it when people call other people pedos as a joke.

Also "established that he manipulated the mods that same night"? Uh....how? How did you establish that? You didn't provide any evidence of me manipulating anyone. You provided one example of me saying that you could get banned if you called me a pedo again.

Bluejay Drama

Bluejay has accused me as being a drama parasite. Let me list the people I have a serious problem with:

- Bluejay
- Hosam
- MechanicalPhoenix
- Isaac K

Most of the shit aside from that are either jokes or shit I don't actually care about.

I will proceed to list every person that Bluejay has or had serious beef with:

- Candlewax
- Devil's Advocate
- Rex
- Sanad

- Bingo
- Teriyaki
- Geon
- Gillian
- Aryan_Femboy (They made up but there was some serious beef there)
- Ikonovich (Same situation there)
- Monkey
- StrangerKhan (kind of but not really. I'm including it anyway)
- AnimeChina
- Isaac K
- VictorTheComrade
- JKG
- Asto
- Vorare
- Gubmint (not 100% sure on this one)

If everywhere you go smells like shit, check the bottom of your shoe.

And that's just off the top of my head. Remember, every accusation from Bluejay is a confession. Let's see what other members have to say about our feuding.

This is the part that's really unforgivable, and it's really quite clear that Candlewax is a liar with actual, in-context proof that he lied.

For starters, even if this stuff was true, it actually doesn't mean anything. It's not a popularity contest. When I said that Candlewax was a "drama parasite", what I was referring to was the fact that Candlewax would get involved in every argument, every fight, and intentionally escalate it. I wasn't referring to the fact that he had many enemies. If you want an example of Candlewax getting involved in drama and intentionally escalating it, look no further than his own admission

So, about a month ago, I had known Bluejay as the type to overreact to shit. Everyone knew it. So basically, Monkey made jokes about Bluejay being a pedophile. I still don't know all the details, but when I saw Bluejay complaining about it, I sent this screenshot and made this joke:

Here are more examples of him getting involved in shit that he has no right getting involved in, only escalating the conflict

Second off, this is incredibly inappropriate. Candlewax is speaking on behalf of other people and inserting himself into my business and acting like he knows who I have personal feuds with. It's none of his business who I have feeling towards, nor is it his business who they have business towards. As you will see shortly, Candlewax was not welcome to talk about other people like that.

As it turns out, Candlewax actually lied and he spoke about "beef" between people who disagreed with him. Let's take a look at some of the people he named.

At one point I thought you may not have liked me but that doesn't seem to be the case

Why do you ask?

you know how candlewax wrote a google document about me? A couple months ago. I ignored it at first but I received a DM about it yesterday, about how someone who I thought was pretty cool was influenced by it and changed their feelings towards me based on it (although we're cool again now)

He listed off a bunch of people and said that these were people who I had "serious beef" with; the implication being that these people didn't like me and I was a problem you were one of those names. As well as Rare, Ikonovich, Strangerkhan, gubmint, and a bunch of others (all the people I just mentioned are on my friend's list)

so I'm trying to come up with a response to it now because candlewax is sharing it with other people

AstolfoBoi 01/07/2021

The only thing I dislike is when people are being what I feel is next level rude to each other

I think there was a time when you and Candle/Gillian were going back and forth that I wish it wasn't happening

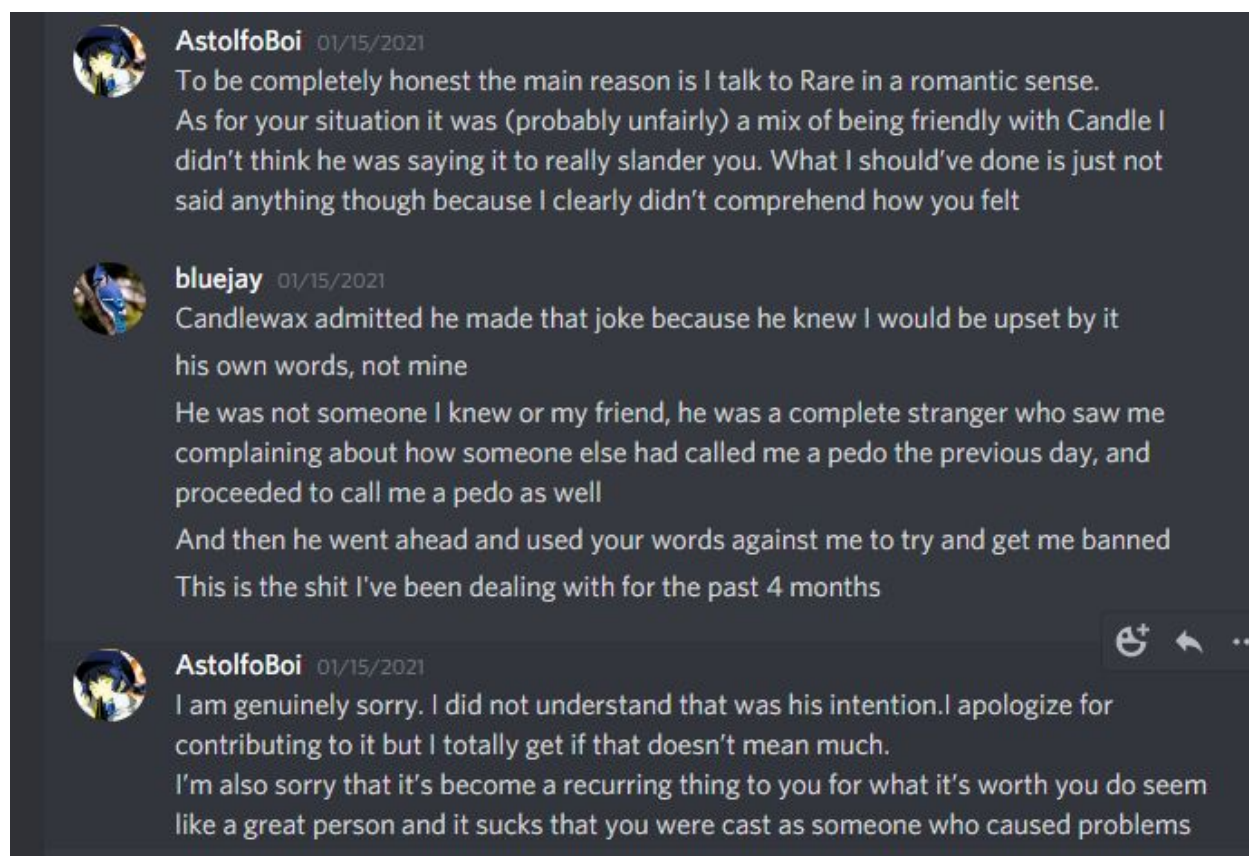

But

I never disliked you and always thought you were fun to have on the server

6:03 AM

Which I've told you before at least the latter half

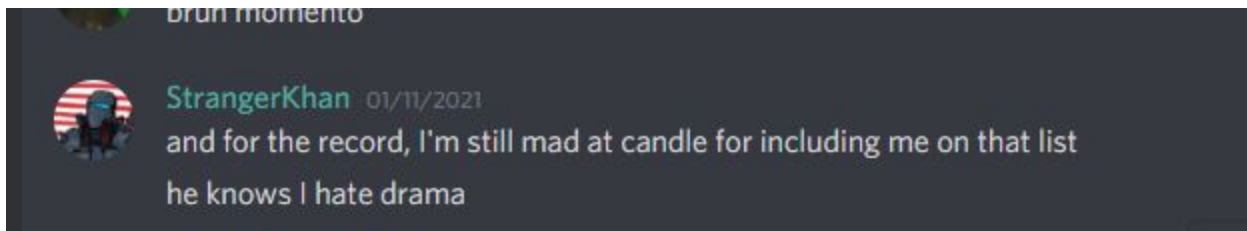

So, we “established” that Candlewax not only lied on behalf of other people about non-existent conflict because he was scared of getting muted, but he also did so without consulting them first.

Every single person who I included, I told them that I would be including them in this. I’m not going to speak on their behalf and lie “THEY HATE CANDLEWAX!!!”, and I didn’t take their words out of context by cropping out half their messages. Everything here is legitimate, honest, and in-context...and yet, despite all that, the mods said that I was less trustworthy than candlewax, and believed him over me.

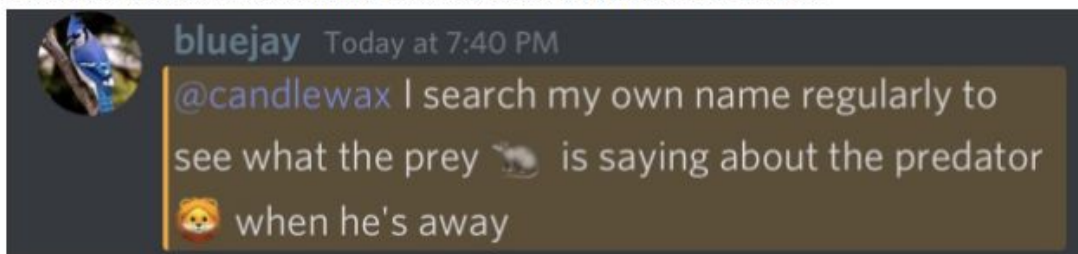

If anything, this ties in perfectly with the “Drama parasite” comment I made about candlewax. Intentionally lying about people to try and start conflict between them sounds pretty “Drama parasitic” to me.

This guy is involved in beef with half of the server's active members and he has the NERVE to accuse me of being a drama parasite? What the fuck is wrong with this guy?

What the fuck is wrong with THIS guy? How stupid do you have to be to intentionally lie about other people's feelings towards someone without even asking them about it first?

He even searches his name often to start even MORE drama:

This is literally a joke. It's a joke comment. It's a meme. I was quoting the Mario Judah song (kind of), and I used the emojis to further empathize the fact that it was a joke

Once again; out of context message that is twisted from the original intent to slander me.

Uphill Battle

Engineer has already firmly positioned himself on Bluejay's side and Ergegr had this to say when he ignored Bluejay starting drama:

How is this supposed to be a fair trial?

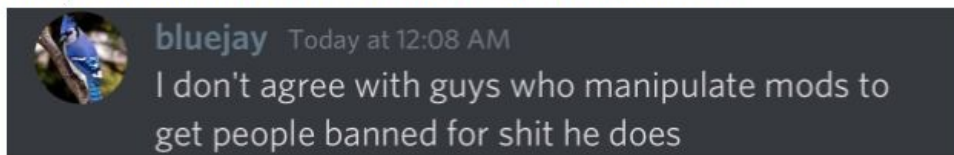

More out of context bullshit.

Let's get ergegr involved on this and see what he has to say.

Conclusion

Bluejay is a paranoid, mentally ill, hypocritical, mess of a person trying to manipulate mods to ban me and I won't have that. Remember:

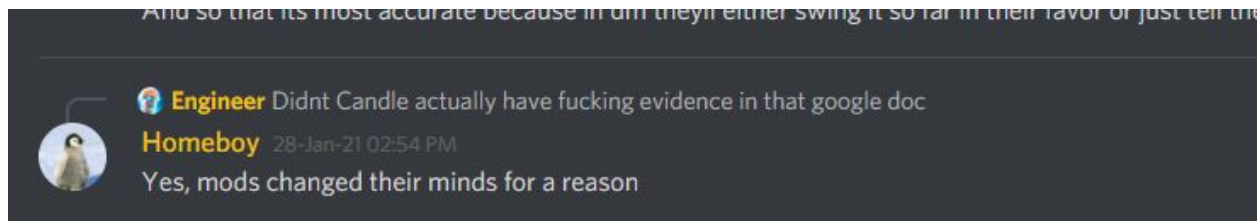

Accusing me of being mentally ill to distract from the fact that he's a terrible human being? I thought mods didn't like that. In all honesty though, this doesn't really make any sense. How am I paranoid? The stuff with druggo and ashy shows that I'm too trusting, not "paranoid"

So in conclusion, I have enough evidence to convict Candlewax for murder, and all I'm doing is proving that he's a liar. Not only is he a liar, he's a liar that somehow is trusted by important members to the point that they automatically gave him the benefit of the doubt in every circumstance. Not only did they not ask me to defend myself when he made this document, they also aggressively defended it as "proof" that I was the one who manipulated things in my favour.

Keep in mind, the mods invited this guy to ban me for “misinformation”; I think that just summarizes the entire PCM moderation doctrine.

One final point for you to consider, an empathy test; Pretend you’re me. Review all the lies that Candlewax said in his document. Know that he’s saying this shit about you. Know that he escaped punishment and negatively affected your reputation with these lies. Know that, on top of all that, moderators came up to you and said that you were the liar who manipulated people. And most importantly, know that he’s been using this document of lies to tell other people about how awful you are months after you wanted to let it go. Imagine how I felt. How I felt literally every single day in that fucking server. All the work I put into it, and yet I received way too much shit for stuff I didn’t do.

Well guys, that’s it. It’s been 5 hours of writing this shit, for a server that wasted 5 months of my time. To all the guys who actually read this top to bottom; thank you. I get mentioned a hundred times a day on servers that I’m not even in, and yet very few people want to seek me out and hear my side of the story. Not the mods, nor the users, ever wanted to actually listen to me and hear what I had to say on stuff. Keep in mind that this document is barely scratching the surface; my story with systemic harassment by the mods to cause me mental and emotional distress goes back MONTHS

Obviously I’m going to get criticisms at the fact that I wrote 35 pages for 2 topics each (most pages are just screenshots which take up a lot of space), but this goes to show how much I actually cared about the community. I feel a lot better now, as I have had my proper say and closure which Soulacola and Engineer refused to give me.

Thank you to all the cool guys who stuck with me and made my time in PCM actually somewhat worthwhile. I don't know where I'm going to go after this, as I'm probably going to delete my server after this and go quiet for a while and focus on my actual life and not a funny colours discord. One final song, an auf wiedersehen, to this community, from your favourite Blue Bird
